

A primary focus for the Librarians' Section (LS) Executive was to support members through the pandemic. This included supporting members the transition to remote working and then back-to-work initiatives such as the brief opening of the reference desk in the Library's Study Hubs, and guidance through the deferred merit process. A second focus was to increase the member's